U-BOAT CAPTURE STORY PERSISTS

Naval Officer Has Promising News That Report Is True, He Tells Crew.

RAIDERS ON SOUTH COAST

Incoming Steamships Tell of Evidence of Submarines in Atlantic Waters.

(International News Service.)

An Atlantic Port, June 6.—Reports of the capture of a German submarine off this port reached here today. Every effort is being made by the naval officials of the first naval district to confirm the report.

A naval officer is said to have received such promising news of the U-boat's capture that he announced the fact to the crew of one of the war vessels here.

All Served as Lookouts. (Associated Press.)

An Atlantic Port, June 6.—The arrival here today of several steamships from south Atlantic waters brought no further news of submarine operations. Officers of the ships said, however, that every precaution was taken against surprise, and while traversing the zone in which the recent sinkings took place every member of the crews who was not otherwise engaged was detailed as a lookout.

Barrels lashed to the masts served as crow's nests for observers, and as further precautions passengers were advised not to disrobe at night, and all lifeboats, fully provisioned and watered, were kept hanging on the davits on a level with the boat deck ready for instant use.

All the arrivals today reported nothing was sighted of an alarming nature. Advice of the navy department that every effort was being made to locate and destroy the submarines were confirmed by statements of passengers, who said that destroyers, submarine chasers and air scouts were frequently seen.

SAYS IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM

Coughs, colds, sore throat or bronchial troubles which persist at this time of the year usually are of an obstinate character. That is all the more reason why a truly reliable remedy like Foley's Honey and Tar Compound should be used. Mrs. Margaret Smale, Bishop, Calif., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is a grand remedy; more than is claimed for it. I was suffering from a cold last week and used the medicine and it acted like a charm." Contains no opiates. Jo Anderson, druggist, Chattanooga, Tenn.—(Adv.)

PARIS PUTS FAITH IN RESERVES BEFORE GATES

Many Think Decisive Battle Is Coming Soon—Seriousness of Situation Realized.

(Copyright, 1918, by the Press Publishing Company.)

(The New York World.)

Paris, June 6.—While the battle in the Marne region rages furiously there are indications that the enemy is at the end of his advance. The German crown prince continues to sacrifice thousands of his men in the endeavor to widen the breach from by attacking the French left. In this part of the line, however, are French reserves, part of which are now engaged in battle, seriously impeding all advance.

The bulk of the French reserves have not yet made themselves felt. It is one of Gen. Foch's cleverest tactics to hold the advancing enemy with the smallest number of reserves. He did this in Picardy and Flanders and is repeating the same movement now.

Every one here realizes the seriousness of the situation, for the enemy is only about fifty miles from the gates of Paris.

His nearest troops to Paris are in the neighborhood of Villers-Cotterets, which is only thirty-five miles from the French capital. But between Paris and Villers are numerous French reserves which only await the moment to enter the battle. These reserves are largely composed of cavalry and light artillery.

Counter blows carried out by the French seem a good omen of future operations. Many think an important, perhaps, a decisive, battle cannot now be long delayed.

High military authorities here say the offensive in the Montdidier sector a little more than a month ago was to have been part and parcel of the present blow. Both actions were to have been launched simultaneously, but the losses inflicted upon the army which attacked Montdidier made the crown prince hesitate.

BERLIN CLAIMS BREAK IN ALLIES' RESISTANCE

Berlin, June 4 (Tuesday).—(Via London).—"There have been artillery duels of varying intensity," says the German official communication issued today.

"The enemy showed lively reconnoitering activity, and made strong advances at several points of the front. Southwest of Merrie (midway between Ypres and Bethune) he has established himself in small trench sectors.

"North of the Aisne, we wrested a few trenches from the enemy in hard fighting. His stubborn resistance in clinging to the heights west and southwest of Soissons was broken yesterday. The heights around Vauxbaux and west of Chaudun were taken.

"After storming Fernant and Missy-aux-Bois, we drove the enemy back to the Souler-Dommiers line. Several batteries were captured. A few thousand prisoners were brought in.

"French counter-attacks on both sides of the Ourcq river failed with heavy losses. On the northeast of Chateau Thierry, we fought our way across the Busieres-Bouresches line and repulsed counter-attacks.

"On the Marne and between the Marne and Rheims, the situation is unchanged."

The evening official report from general headquarters says:

"There were successful engagements on the southern bank of the Aisne to the west of Soissons."

AUSTRIAN BREAK-UP IF FOCH IS VICTOR

(Copyright, 1918, by the Press Publishing Company.)

(The New York World.)

Geneva, June 6.—The government and the inspired press of Austria clearly realize that Austria-Hungary's future depends on the result of the gigantic battle in the west, in which, paradoxically enough, not an Austrian soldier is taking part.

According to the best informed opinion a German failure in the west would open wide the flood gates of revolt among the oppressed nationalities. The recent manifestations in Bohemia are important as showing the temper of the people, but in spite of earlier reports to the contrary, there has been no pillaging and rioting on one side or shooting on the other.

ONE THOUSAND SOLDIERS MADE CITIZENS OF U. S.

Atlanta, June 6.—One thousand soldiers at Camp Gordon and Fort McPherson were today made citizens of the United States by Federal Judge Newman, with a staff of assistants, visited both camps and conducted the ceremonies of naturalization.

"WE SHALL KEEP PACE," SAYS BRITISH ADMIRAL

Predicted Further Development of U-Boat Warfare by Germany.

(Associated Press.)

London, June 6.—British admiralty officials have been expecting for some time that German submarine commerce raiders would appear on the American coast.

In speaking of the possibility of this development they usually expressed entire confidence that the American naval forces would be able to deal adequately with the problem and that the venture would not prove very profitable to the Germans. It was even predicted that no single event would be likely to so completely rouse the spirit of determination to win the war in the American people as the appearance of the war on their own doorstep.

The increasing radius of submarine activity has been repeatedly noted recently and was the subject of considerable comment a few days ago when the steamer President Lincoln was sunk.

"Ultimately we shall see submarine cruisers with heavy guns and torpedoes protected by armor and with a surface speed equal to any existing surface craft," said the Marquis of Milfordhaven. "These new cruisers will require attendant vessels as eyes for offense and defense, the same as surface battle fleets now have but these attendant craft will be in the air, not in the water."

ATTACHES OF Y. M. C. A. PLAYED HEROIC PART

(Associated Press.)

Paris, June 6.—American men and women attached to the American Y. M. C. A. units with the French troops played heroic parts in the recent retreat east and west of Soissons, and one, Carl Lyttle, of North Brookfield, Mass., is believed to have sacrificed his life. Lyttle, who is 28 years old, is officially reported missing. Amid a rain of gas shells he went on a certain burning village to rescue refugees after the troops had come out and has not been seen since.

Women workers particularly distinguished themselves. One, Miss Maria Herriot, of Cincinnati, sister-in-law of former President Taft, remained in a hut serving food and coffee to the soldiers until the village was set on fire by German shells. Miss Jane Rolley, of Cincinnati, left a hut at Soissons only a few hours before the Germans entered the town.

LONDON IMPRESSED BY BEHAVIOR OF AMERICANS

(Associated Press.)

London, June 6.—The behavior of the American troops at Chateau Thierry has demonstrated more than anything that has yet happened on the American front the splendid initiative and enterprise with which the American army is endowed and nothing has aroused the keener enthusiasm of commanders, says the Daily Mail correspondent with the American army in France. He quotes an unnamed French general as saying that the American spirit and enterprise at a critical moment served to maintain the morale of the French troops around Chateau Thierry.

"DOC, WHEN WILL I BE ABLE TO GO AFTER THE HUN WHO FIXED ME?"

(Associated Press.)

Paris, June 6.—The spirit and morale of the American soldiers wounded in the Cantigny battle, 99 per cent. of whom will recover, is wonderful. The first question they ask the surgeon is: "Doc, when will I be able to go back after the German who fixed me?"

Two young privates were waiting their turn to enter the operating room of a large American hospital in Paris today. One said:

"I have been over the top three times and it is the greatest sport I ever had. Fix me up quick, because I want to go back after the boches again."

THIRTY-TWO OF ONE GERMAN FAMILY ENGAGED IN WAR

(Associated Press.)

Berne, June 6.—A hearing upon the war losses of some German families, a statement made today to the Associated Press correspondent by a German woman now in Paris is interesting.

"Twenty-five of my relatives have been killed. Six are invalids, and only two are left unharmed out of thirty-two engaged in the war," said this woman whose husband was killed in German front near Arras. "My uncle," she continued, "sent seven sons into the war and six of them were killed within two months."

SORRY EXHIBITION ENDS IN ANOTHER DEFEAT

There seems to be too much grass in the Chattanooga baseball club yesterday, and he plays third base. As the result of Freddie's playing and the exercising of his pet hobby, the hit-and-run play, the locals handed the game to Mobile on a silver platter. It was Fred's error that allowed the first run for Mobile to score and then later he pulled a bone on the coach line at third which caused a runner on third, with only one down, to get caught between third and home. But there were others who pulled bones, so Fred need not feel lonesome, and although Mobile did not toss away the chances they had as often as the locals did, still they were there with their share of the ivory. It was awful, and a small crowd went home weary of the exhibition. One time during the game the locals had three on and nobody down, and the beat they could do was to tie the score with one run. However, the game ended in the tenth when a Mobile runner scored from second on a single to left. Paidock made a beautiful throw to the plate, but the ball bounced high and the runner slid under Higgins and was safe. Atlanta, the cellar ornaments of the league, is on hand for today's game. It's hard to tell what will be the result of this game, with Chattanooga playing like they have lately and Atlanta playing like they have the season through. Yesterday's score follows:

Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10—
Chattanooga.....0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—
Batteries—Johnson and Coleman; Ring and Higgins.

Summary: Stolen base—Cruett; Sacrifice hits—Leach (2), Graham, Bues, Orcutt, Caver. Two-base hit—Cruett. Three-base hit—Flagstad. Double play—McMillan to Caver; Phelan to Graham. Struck out—By Ring, 2; by Johnson, 2. Bases on balls—Off Ring, 3; off Johnson, 4. Time—1:35. Umpires—Carpenter and Robertson.

NATIONAL CLUB OWNERS NOT WORRIED OVER WAR'S EFFECT

New York, June 6.—That club owners of the National league are fairly satisfied with conditions so far this season was brought out today in the announcement that no unfavorable comment was made by the magnates at their meeting here yesterday in viewing prospects for the remainder of the season.
